Article 4 – Financial Obligations:

Article 4.1 – Scientific and academic cooperation will be implemented through further written Agreements, subject to the approval of the academic boards. The Parties will jointly or individually seek funding from national or international bodies and organizations to finance the scheduled activities. No activity shall be accomplished without the necessary financial support.

Article 4.2 – Each Party will pay all insurance costs of its own students and staff participating in the exchange program, limited to accident insurance and third party civil liability insurance. Students from both institutions are required to provide additional health insurance coverage at their own expenses. Different provisions may be given in further Agreements.

Article 4.3 – Students from both Parties participating in the exchange program are exempt from paying enrolment tuitions and fees at the host university. Students should meet all the administrative duties required by their own University. Each party will be responsible for the health and safety of the students during activities carried out on its premises, according to the local and applicable laws and regulations. For the sake of clarity, each party confirms and represents that it complies with all the applicable and specific laws and regulations.

Article 5 – Intellectual Property:

Article 5.1 – Anything regarding intellectual and industrial property, as well as patents and inventions, that may result from common research activities will be regulated by specific written Agreements.

Article 5.2 –The parties undertake to process data exclusively for the purposes identified in the agreement. The parties undertake to take all the appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of access, and which provide a level of security appropriate to the risk represented by the processing and the nature of the personal data to be protected.

Article 5.3 – The Parties agree not to use the other Party’s trade names, trademarks or logos or symbols of the other party in any advertisement, promotional material, press release, publication, public announcement, or otherwise, without the prior written approval of the concerned party.

Article 6 – Dispute:

This Agreement, its meaning and interpretation, and the legal relation between the Parties shall be governed by the Jordanian Law. If any dispute arises between the Parties in connection with, or arising of, the performance of this Agreement, or any breach, termination, or validity of this Agreement, the Parties shall attempt for a period of 90 days to settle such dispute in the first instance amicably by mutual discussion between the Parties. If the Parties cannot settle the dispute within 90 days amicably, the dispute shall be settled under the Rules of Jordanian Arbitration Law. In a way that does not conflict with Islamic law Arbitration shall be held in Amman, Jordan.

Article 7- None of the Parties may assign, transfer or otherwise convey any or all of their rights or obligations, in whole or in part, stipulated in this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party.

Article 8 – Duration & Termination:

This Agreement shall enter into force following its signature by all the contracting Parties and shall remain in effect for a period of five (5) years. The Agreement may be renewed or modified by means of a written notice. The Parties may withdraw from the present Agreement by giving a six-month written notice. In the event of termination of the Agreement, the projects in progress shall continue until the end of the current academic year at the least.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have, through duly authorized representatives, executed this Agreement effective as of the day and year indicated in below, on two (2) original copies in English were each Party received a copy.
