

SDG1: NO POVERTY

End Poverty in All its Forms Every where

Establishment of the Social Responsibility Fund at Amman Arab University

By a decision of the Amman Arab University Board of Trustees, a financial fund for social responsibility was established.

The decision follows the decision of the previous Board of Trustees to develop the university's societal role by adding The Office of Social Responsibility on the organizational structure of the university a sense of responsibility to contribute Actual in sustainable development.

The Fund, in cooperation with official bodies and civil society institutions, focuses on this aspect. To provide university education opportunities for qualified students with financial challenges and to contribute.

In addressing the problems of poverty and unemployment by raising the standard of living for low-income groups capable of production through training, rehabilitation and the establishment of small projects, in addition to launching community initiatives.

Relations and Social Responsibility Office
About us
Vision, Mission, and Objectives
Organizational Chart
Employee
Community Service
Contact Us

Amman University offers 64 scholarships covering 100% of tuition fees for the entire study period

In the context of consolidating the leadership and excellence of the Arab University of Amman at the Local, regional and International levels and the continuation of the University's approach in attracting distinguished people, the Arab University of Amman is pleased to announce the availability of 64 scholarships for bachelor's and master's degrees, with 16 scholarships for each of the following countries: Iraq, Libya, the Arab Republic of Egypt, and the Sultanate Oman.

Community Partner Award for Amman Arab University from the Regional Network for Social Responsibility

Amman Arab University won the "Reliable Community Partner Award for the Regional Network for Social Responsibility for the year 2022", which was awarded to it by the Regional Network for Social Responsibility. The announcement of this honor came during the activities of the Eleventh Forum of the Partners of the Regional Network for Social Responsibility for the year 2023 (Partnership 11), which was held in the Kingdom of Bahrain, under the auspices of His Excellency Mr. Ali bin Saleh Al-Saleh, Speaker of the Shura Council in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

This award comes as a result of the strong and continuous partnership between Amman Arab University and the regional network for social responsibility, and as a result of the exceptional achievements that enhanced the depth of community giving for such professional efforts during the year 2022, which came as a result of continuous efforts, effective communication and professional partnership, which are in the interest of developing societies and institutions.

On this occasion, the President of Amman Arab University, Prof. Muhamad Al-Widyan, expressed his pride in such honoring, which gives the University a new impetus forward and to move forward towards (entrepreneurship and excellence) that the University seeks, and towards community service, which represents an effective part of the University's mission that it always seeks to achieve with cooperation with local, regional and international community institutions.

Amman Arab University" Hosts "Souk Karam" and "We Are Tomorrow Initiative"

Amman Arab University/Deanship of Student Affairs, under the generous patronage of Prof. Ikhlas Al-Tarawneh, Vice President for Academic Affairs, and in cooperation with “Karam Market” and “We are Tomorrow Initiative” organized a bazaar for three days on the university campus / Al-Nakhil Square. The bazaar, which was attended by more than 20 participants from companies and community women, and welcomed the organizers and supporters of such activities that support women and startups, and said: that Amman Arab University, within its vision and mission, works to participate in building society and always provides support for such activities. She also thanked the Deanship of Student Affairs organized this activity, and emphasized that organizing such bazaars aims to benefit students from everything that is offered during the bazaar and to empower and support the women of the community.

Amman Arab University Launches "Mozn Amman Arab" Initiative

Deanship of Student Affairs at the Amman Arab University implemented the "Muzn Amman Arab" initiative, which revolves around the needs of the winter season. Prof. Ikhlas Al-Tarawneh, Vice President for Academic Affairs, in the presence of the Assistant President for Administrative and Financial Affairs, Ms. Nadia Qedimat, Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Khaled Bani Hamdan, the Vice Dean of Student Affairs, and the Student Affairs Team sponsored the activities of the initiative. On this occasion, Dr. Khaled Bani Hamdan, Dean of Student Affairs, welcomed the attendees and those in charge of this initiative aims to enhance the sense of social responsibility in the work environment.

Moreover, Al-Tarawneh praised the role of the Deanship of Student Affairs for always striving to make qualitative and distinguished initiatives that aim to empower and enhance social responsibility, and she thanked all the supporters of this initiative, whether from inside or outside the University, which reflects a bright picture of feeling for others and helping them in all fields. In this regard, Mrs. Nadia Qedimat, Assistant President for Administrative and Financial Affairs, said that this initiative spreads a positive spirit among the employees and workers at Amman Arab University, which is dominated by love, brotherhood, cooperation and respect.

A Memorandum of Cooperation between "Amman Arab University" and the Ibdaa Charity Association

Based on the University's constant keenness to communicate and network with active community institutions, and in order to achieve its social responsibility, Amman Arab University concluded a memorandum of understanding with Ibdaa Charitable Association.

The memorandum of cooperation signed by the President of the University, Prof. Mohamad Al-Widyan, and the President of the Association, Mrs. Maha Darwish, aims to produce a knowledge society capable of innovation and development for economic and scientific advancement, and to hold and implement joint training programs.

On this occasion, Prof. Al-Widyan said that this memorandum comes from the University's belief in the importance of innovation and thinking outside the box among students, because of its real value in drawing a better future for students, in addition to the importance of promoting innovation and entrepreneurship in education as a means of enhancing competitiveness, increasing economic growth and generating new job opportunities for young people. This is done by guiding and pushing students' creativity to achieve their goals.

Bazaar Mazan at Amman Arab University

Under the patronage of Prof. Mohamed Al-Widyan, President of Amman Arab University, the University represented by the Affairs of the Student Affairs and in cooperation with the Association of Afnan Association organized "Charitable Bazaar Mazan of Amman Arab University". This Bazaar is organized to achieve visions and mission of the University in the development and service of Jordanian society and support for women to market their products. Moreover, Prof. Al-Widyan thanked the participants in this bazaar and urged the Deanship of Student Affairs to establish such charitable bazaars. The President of the University presented the University Shield to the President of the Dawata Afnan Association, Mrs. Basma Abu Jaber, for her efforts.

Mrs. Abu Jaber also honored Prof. Mohamad Al-Widyan, the President of the University, Ms. Nadia Al-Qadimat, Assistant to the President for Financial and Administrative Affairs, and Dr. Khaled Bani Hamdan, Dean of Student Affairs, to express their thanks for the University's contribution and support.

A Cooperation Agreement between "Amman Arab University" and the Baqa'a Camp Services Committee

Prof. Mohamad Al-Widyan, President of Amman Arab University, stressed the importance and necessity of partnerships with the local community, which the university took upon itself to contribute to reducing the problems of poverty and unemployment. During signing the cooperation agreement with the Al-Baqa'a Camp Services Committee, Prof. Al-Widyan said that the University offers partial scholarships to the residents of the camp. Al-Baqa'a is in addition to the quality seasonal services that the University provides through the University's Social Responsibility Office, based on its social responsibility and the provision of educational opportunities for all segments of society.

The University concluded a cooperation agreement signed by, Prof. Mohamad Al-Widyan, and on behalf of the Camp Services Committee, the head of the committee, Dr. Hassan Marshoud, in the presence of Dr. Muhammad Nassar, Director of the Marketing Department, Mr. Waddah Mismar, Director of the Media and Public Relations Department, Mr. Bassam Al-Bashaira, the university's consultant for social responsibility, and Mrs. Basima Abu Jaber, member of the University Council.

In this regard, Dr. Marshoud expressed his happiness at signing this agreement, which translates the true meaning of social solidarity, and stressed that the Baqa'a Camp Services Committee expresses its pride in the Amman Arab University for the many discounts and privileges it offers towards the local community and the camp's residents.

Cooperation Agreement between Amman Arab University and the Union of Employees of the International Relief Agency (UNRWA) in Jordan

Amman Arab University, represented President, Prof. Mohamed Al-Widyan, concluded a cooperation agreement with the Union of Employees of the International Relief Agency "UNRWA" in Jordan, which was represented by the President of the Union of Employees of the International Relief Agency "UNRWA", Mr. Riad Zeegan, in the presence of Prof. Hyam Al-Taj , dean of College of Educational and Psychological Sciences , Prof.oda Abu-Sninah, and Dr.Rami Al-shugran, dr.Bassam Ghanim , Sawsan Al-Alim ,Director of Al-Baqaa School , and Mr.Ahmad Al-Masri, Director of Al-Nuzha School, who is one of alumni of Amman Arab University.

Prof.Al-Widyan began his speech by reviewing the history and emergence of the University and its faculties, and the educational-learning opportunities available to students at the University, specifically in the field of Aviation Sciences and other available majors such as cybersecurity, data science and artificial intelligence, which was recently developed as one of the programs of the Faculty of Computer Sciences and Informatics

Prof. Al-Widyan expressed his aspiration that this memorandum will contribute to providing academic support to the agency's employees and their families to study at the university for the bachelor's and master's programs, and cooperation in areas of common interest that promote the concept of social responsibility

In turn, Mr. Zeegan said that Amman Arab University enjoys great excellence in its graduates who work in the Relief Agency as supervisors and teachers, and indicated that the Ain Al-Basha Brigade has (16) schools for males and females. He said that the university has a distinguished academic position and is highly reliable in education.

It is noteworthy that the agreement aims to enhance cooperation in terms of accepting the employees of the agency and their children to enroll in the programs offered by the university in its various faculties with bachelor's and master's degrees, exchanging experiences and knowledge, establishing extracurricular activities and programs, voluntary events, community service and participating in conferences, seminars and training courses.

College of business at Amman Arab University hold a Ramadan Iftar for Orphaned Children

Coping with the endeavor of social responsibility by the Amman Arab University, Faculty of Business at the University, in cooperation with the schools of the Modern Arab Academy, held on Tuesday, 4/4/2023, a Ramadan Iftar for orphaned children from some charitable associations and orphan centers in the capital Amman, in the presence of about (200) children, where the children spent a beautiful time with the participation of students through the games and competitions. It is noteworthy that this initiative comes from the endeavor of the University administration to network with local community institutions due to its absolute belief in the community responsibility that rests with the university. It is noteworthy that the university has been holding such events annually.

Pioneering and Excellence